Hi Joan:

I am writing to give you, as chair, notice of my departure from the Brant County Heritage Advisory Committee, effective immediately. Unfortunately, due to changes in my work and personal obligations, I have regrettably been unable to attend more recent committee meetings. I am resigning as a result of these changes, which have left me unable to fulfil my committee obligations effectively into the future.

I appreciate the opportunity to have been a part of this committee for the last two years and I am sad to leave this role.

I wish you and the committee all the best going forward.

Sincerely,
Sean Kavanagh
