9. Staff Reports

9.1 RPT-0506-24 2025 Budget Structure and Priority Setting

Cindy Stevenson, General Manager of Emergency & Protective Services presented RPT-0506-24 2025 Budget Structure and Priority Setting, seeking input from the Board on priorities that they would like to focus on for 2025 and noting that a final draft budget for 2025 would be brought forward at the December Board meeting. She noted that the base budget includes the Board's insurance policy and additional community representative on the Board, and that the Board may wish to consider additional funding for training and development for the additional member. She further advised of having separated line items in the budget for the dispatch newsletter postage and travelling expenses associated with conferences.

Chair Haley advised of initiatives that the previous Police Services Board supported, noting the Safe Beds Program, platoon barbecues, the Brant OPP Youth Academy, Christmas holiday tokens of acknowledgement, and the Special Olympics.

In response to questions, C. Stevenson advised that the Board may consider adding additional funds to the budget for training and development for an additional member to attend the OAPSB conference. She further advised that unspent funds in the operating budget do not carry forward, and that there is a change within the Community Safety and Policing Act that notes the revenue for sales of property is deposited in a Provincial Consolidated Revenue Fund and does not go to the local Board. In response to further questions, C. Stevenson advised that the Board is trending to be on budget for the end of year. C. Stevenson further advised she will follow up with the City of Brantford regarding the Safety Patrol Year End Acknowledgement.

Moved by Member Brown
Seconded by Member Budreau

That RPT-0506-24 2025 Budget Structure and Priority Setting be received as information;

And that the Board direct staff to bring forward an itemized 2025 Budget to the Board for review and approval;

And that Board members forward budget items for consideration to staff.

S. Pluck advised that following the passing of By-law 24-02, he will notify the OAPSB of the Board's name change.

10.2 Ontario Association of Police Services Boards Membership Renewal Invoice - Ontario Association of Police Services Boards

In response to questions, Chair Haley advised that the OAPSB membership is not mandated.

11. Updates

11.1 Council Communication

Councillor Peirce advised that he has received concerns regarding making the Paris Lions Park safer at night. In response to questions, Councillor Peirce advised that December would be a good time for the Board to provide an update to Council and re-establish a reporting routine.

Mayor Bailey advised that concerns were received regarding a lack of policing at Jingle Bell Night, and that the concerns were discussed with Inspector Quenneville.

11.2 OAPSB Zone 4

Chair Haley reported that in-person meeting dates have been set for Zone 4 in 2025, that these meetings are held in conjunction with the Ontario Association of Chiefs of Police, and that no meetings are set in Brant. She further advised that they are seeking an information session with the OPP to discuss the new reporting template and the Detachment Commander Evaluation Reporting Template, and that all Board members are welcome to attend for information.

11.3 Chair Update

Chair Haley advised that the fall Dispatch Newsletter is ready to go to print, and will be uploaded to the website at a later date. She further advised that the County's Community Safety and Well-Being Plan will soon be updated and revised, and that this is now legislated in the Community Safety and Policing Act. She concluded with noting that herself and Inspector Quenneville attended the 56th Field Artillery Regiment's Mess dinner and that the event was a success.

12. Other Business

Holiday Token Of Appreciation

Chair Haley advised that in the past the Board would provide a token of appreciation to each member of the detachment which would consist of chocolate and a letter from the Board thanking them for their service.

Moved by Councillor Peirce
Seconded by Member Brown
